

Please note marks will be deducted for incorrect spelling.

1. Identify the prefixes in the following words: (Total: 2)

1.1 contradictions

1.2 replied

2. Add the suffix or, er, ian or ist to form the word for a person associated with each of activity. Write the word only. (Total: 5)

2.1 The student practised playing her scales so that she could become a great piano one day.

2.2 In order to be the survive of a shipwreck, you need to be able to swim or float on debris.

2.3 World War II was explained by the great history to the students at the university.

2.4 The edit of the book was impressed that the author's grammar and punctuation was accurate.

2.5 In order to become a news report, one has to study journalism.

3. Write the opposite of these adjectives by adding the correct prefix (write the whole word out): (Total: 3)

3.1 agreeable

3.2 legible

3.3 sane

4. Rewrite these sentences. Fill in the correct form of the words in brackets and add auxiliary verbs if necessary: (Total: 4)

4.1 Don't bother Mr Payne while he (speak).

4.2 I (play) tennis next Saturday morning.

4.3 We (enjoy) camp this week.

4.4 We (run) heats the whole of next week.

5. Rewrite these sentences. Underline the subject in red, circle the verb in green, and underline the object in black:

5.1 Aliya was stung by a bee. (3)

5.2 Mrs Botes forgot her books at home. (3)

5.3 The lion stalked its prey though the long grass. (3)

6. Identify the predicate by underlining the necessary words in the following sentences:

6.1 Kittens are very popular pets. (1)

6.2 Sophie scored the winning goal. (1)

Memo

1.1 contra

1.2 re

2.1 Pianist

2.2 survivor

2.3 historian

2.4 editor

2.5 reporter

3.1 disagreeable

3.2 illegible

3.3 insane

4.1 Don't bother Mr Payne while he is speaking.

4.2 I will be playing tennis next Saturday morning.

4.3 We are enjoying camp this week.

4.4 We will be running heats the whole of next week.

5.1 Aliya was stung by a bee.

5.2 Mrs Botes forgot her books at home.

5.3 The lion stalked its prey though the long grass

6.1 are very popular pets.

6.2 scored the winning goal.

Total / 25